Insuring your property

Owning a property brings with it all the usual maintenance issues and associated costs. Your policy will not pay for damage caused by the usual process of wear and tear. Nor will it pay for damage that has occurred over a period of time due to lack of maintenance. It is designed to step in and help out when the unexpected and out of the ordinary happens.

It is important that you tell us immediately when the use or occupation of the property changes because it could affect the cover we have previously provided and there may be some requirements that we need you to carry out for your cover to continue. A change in circumstances would include such things as:

- The property becoming empty.
- Its use changing.
- The tenant's occupation or trade changing.

Failure to advise us may mean you have no insurance cover in force. You should consider who is responsible for what and when under the terms of your lease if damage occurs. This might include such things as damage to tenant's improvements, contents of individual units if let furnished or contents of communal areas. Make sure you understand the extent of your responsibilities as a landlord and that your policy adequately protects you.

Loss of rental income

When insuring an investment property it's important that not only is the physical asset protected against damage but also the income it generates. You need to make sure this is covered and that you have cover for an adequate amount of time. Consider whether the indemnity period (the period of time that the policy will cover lost rent) you choose is adequate. If the worst happens to your building it may take many months or even years for it to be reinstated and generating rental income again.

Accurate valuation of your property

It is important that you have the right level of insurance in place to fully protect your property. The consequences of underinsurance can be very damaging as you may find that your claim is not met in full – often at a time when the money is most needed.

Over-insuring your property can also leave you out of pocket as you are likely to be paying too much for your insurance.

You should insure your property for the full reinstatement value (this means the cost to fully rebuild the property, not the market value). To be confident of having an accurate buildings reinstatement valuation it is best to instruct a local chartered surveyor to carry out a detailed assessment on your behalf.

If you decide to calculate the full reinstatement value without professional help there are numerous aspects that require careful thought. In summary, your valuation should include:

- Demolition costs
- Architects and other professional fees
- Site clearance costs
- Rebuilding costs to restore the property
- Check the definition of 'buildings' that applies to your insurance policy (this may differ between insurers and policy types) to ensure that all the appropriate areas are included in your calculation.

General Advice for Landlords

- It is important to recognise the difference between a property's market value and its reinstatement value. Market value represents what the owner might get if the property is sold. The two valuations may, and generally do, vary significantly.
- Listed status typically leads to additional cost implications when it comes to rebuilding. Specialist contractors may need to employ certain building techniques and use specific materials which can influence reinstatement cost and time.
- Older properties are more likely to contain hazardous materials such as asbestos. Ensuring that such materials are safely dealt with can significantly increase demolition and clearance costs.
- Remote properties or those with limited access can also incur increased demolition, clearance and rebuild costs.
- It is important that reinstatement valuations are reviewed on a regular basis. Factors such as inflation and variations in local market labour and material costs over time can affect the accuracy of the valuation.

Unoccupancy

If your property becomes unoccupied for more than 30 days, you should take reasonable measures to protect your property. This should include the following:

- (a) all services should be turned off at the mains except electricity where needed to maintain any fire or intruder alarm system in operation and the water and heating system drained
- (b) the property should be adequately secured against unauthorised entry
- (c) at least weekly inspections should be made of the property by you or a responsible person acting on your behalf
- (d) any accumulations of combustible materials such as junk mail and newspapers are to be removed during each inspection of the property.

Please note that in the event of your property becoming unoccupied for more than 30 days, you will no longer be insured against malicious damage, escape of water or oil, theft or accidental damage.

Your duties

When an incident occurs that may result in a claim you shall

- (a) tell us as soon as you become aware
- (b) take all practicable steps to recover property lost and otherwise minimise the claim
- (c) tell the police immediately if the Damage is caused by thieves, malicious persons, vandals, or as a result of riot, civil commotion, strikes or labour disturbances
- (d) within 30 days give us any information we require and continue to provide us with any information and assistance we require before or after we pay your claim under the policy
- (e) not make or allow to be made on your behalf any admission, offer, promise or payment without our consent
- (f) forward to us every letter, claim, writ, summons and process immediately upon receipt without acknowledgement and advise us in writing or by telephoning us on 01872 277151 as soon as you have any knowledge of any impending prosecution, inquest or inquiry in connection with that incident.

No claim shall be payable unless these conditions have been complied with and in the event of non compliance any payment on account of the claim already made by us shall be repaid to us.

Our rights

We may

- (a) start, take over, defend and conduct any legal action in your name
- (b) prosecute in your name for our benefit any claim for payment or damages. We will have full discretion in the conduct and settlement of any such action
- (c) enter any building where Damage has occurred and take and keep possession of any property insured by this policy. We will not accept property abandoned to us. This policy shall be proof that you have authorised our rights under this condition
- (d) at any time pay to you the Section Limit
 - (i) in the case of Defence Cost claims less any amount already paid or incurred
 - (ii) in the case of Property Owners Liability claims less any amount already paid or incurred as damages

Claims Conditions

Other Insurance

We will not make any payment for any claim that results from an incident that is covered by any other insurance that you hold, in the event that any other policy that you hold with any other insurance company excludes payment under that policy where more than one insurance exists.

Where any other insurance policy that you hold provides an exclusion that each and every insurance company should pay their rateable proportion of any claim that is insured more than once, it is the intention of this clause that we will pay the appropriate rateable proportion.

Arbitration

Provided we have admitted liability for a claim any dispute as to the amount to be paid shall be resolved by arbitration in accordance with the statutory provisions in force at the time by

- (a) an agreed arbitrator or, if an arbitrator cannot be agreed,

Fraudulent Claims

If you make any claim which is fraudulent or false no payment shall be made. We may, by giving notice to you, cancel the policy with effect from the date of the fraudulent act.

Subrogation waiver

Subrogation means our right to take action against a third party to recover any claims payments made by us. If there is a claim, we will not take this action against any company that is:

- (a) your parent company or any of their subsidiaries
- (b) a subsidiary of your company.

We will use the relevant legislation in force at the time of the Damage to decide what a parent company is and what a subsidiary company is.

In addition, we will not take this action against any of your tenants if the tenant or lessee pays towards the cost of insuring the property against the Event that caused the Damage unless the Damage is caused by a criminal, fraudulent or malicious act of the tenant or lessee.

General Conditions

(1) Failure to fairly present the risk

It is your duty to make a fair presentation of your business to us. If you fail to do this and the failure is deliberate or reckless we may

- refuse all claims
- cancel the policy from the beginning and retain all premiums paid.

If the failure is non-deliberate or non-reckless we may

- cancel the policy from the beginning but we will refund your premium
- apply different terms which may proportionately affect any claim payment.

An example of a proportionate claim payment

If you declare the value of an insured item to be less than it is truly worth, albeit in a non-deliberate way, we would work out what percentage of the correct premium you had paid and apply this percentage to the claim payment. For example if the premium you paid was £500 and the premium you should have paid was £550, you have paid 91% of the correct premium so your claim payment would only be 91% of the full value of the claim.

(2) Reasonable Precautions

You must:

- take all reasonable precautions to prevent accident, loss, liability or Bodily Injury;
- maintain the Building and any machinery, equipment or furnishings in a good state of repair;
- exercise reasonable care in seeing that all statutory and other obligations and regulations are observed and complied with;
- exercise care in the selection and supervision of Employees.

(3) Alteration of Risk

If after the commencement of this insurance

- (a) there is any alteration of risk which increases the risk of Damage, accident or liability
- (b) the Building is undergoing major structural alterations or major repair (that does not include where workmen are allowed on the site to carry out minor repairs alterations or general maintenance not involving external scaffolding)
- (c) your interest ceases except by will or operation of law
- (d) an administrator or a liquidator or receiver is appointed or you enter into a voluntary arrangement
- (e) there is any material change in Business Activity
- (f) you permanently move abroad

it is a condition of this policy that immediate notice is given to us.

Upon any alteration described above we shall be entitled to cancel the policy from the date of the alteration or impose special terms and/or charge an additional premium.

(4) Changes to Premium

If you make a change in the policy cover and it results in a charge or a refund for the period up to the renewal date of the policy then any charge or refund will only be made or given by us if it exceeds £6.

General Conditions

(5) Cancelling the policy

(a) Your right to cancel

There is a 14 day cooling off period from the date you receive your documents. If you decide to cancel the policy during this time we will refund your premium provided no claims have been made. For a cancellation at any other stage during your Policy year please contact us and we will only charge you for the time on cover unless a claim has been made in which case we will keep the full premium.

(b) Our right to cancel

We have the right to cancel the policy by giving you seven days' notice in writing sent by recorded delivery to your last known address explaining our reason for doing so. As long as you have not made a claim we will refund the part of your premium which covers the cancelled period. If you have made a claim then the full annual premium is due. Valid reasons for cancelling include but are not limited to:

- (i) non payment of premium, or any instalment of the premium;
- (ii) where we reasonably suspect fraud;
- (iii) where you fail to co-operate with us or give us information or documentation that we reasonably request;
- (iv) where you have not provided accurate and truthful responses to the questions we have asked when issuing, amending or renewing the policy;
- (v) where you fail to comply with the policy terms and conditions;
- (vi) where a change in your circumstances means we are unable to continue to provide cover.
- (vii) where you use threatening, abusive, intimidating or bullying behaviour towards our staff or suppliers.

(6) Index Linking

We will automatically adjust the sums insured for your Buildings in line with changes in suitable indices of cost. This adjustment will continue after any insured Damage provided that the work of repair or reinstatement is done without delay.

(7) Acts of Parliament and Jurisdiction

All legal instruments and rules referred to shall include equivalent legislation in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands and any subsequent amendment or replacement legislation.

(8) Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

A person or company who is not a party to this contract has no right to enforce the terms and conditions of this Policy under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

(9) Choice of Law

The parties to an insurance contract are free to choose the law that will apply. In the absence of a specific agreement between the parties the law applying to this contract is English Law and (except where the policy specifically sets out a different position) the courts of England and Wales will have jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with this policy.

(10) Premium payment by instalments

- a) if you agree to pay your premium by monthly direct debit or a similar arrangement you must pay any deposit we ask for and make sure your instalment payments are kept up to date;
- b) if you make a claim, we may deduct any outstanding amounts due to us before paying the claim
